FAMILY FRIENDLY HIKES

Outdoor adventures are more fun when you can bring the whole family. In the Endless Mountains, we have trails that are easy enough for kids, yet still offer rewarding views. From stroller-friendly rail trails to adventurous waterfall treks, these ten trails will delight kids and parents alike.

DOUBLE RUN NATURE TRAIL

Location: Worlds End State Park & Loyalsock State Forest
Distance: 1.2-mile loop

The Double Run Nature Trail captures the stunning scenery of Sullivan County, but without the tough climbs and rugged terrain. The trail starts on PA-154 at Worlds End State Park and follows the creek into the Loyalsock State Forest. Kids will love playing along the stream and crossing the footbridges. The trail leads to Cottonwood Falls, a small but scenic waterfall surrounded by lush woodlands.

EAGLES MERE CONSERVANCY NATURE TRAIL

Location: Conservancy Cabin (off Route 42 near the Outlet Pond)
Distance: 0.75 miles

The Eagles Mere Conservancy Cabin is a starting point for several trails, including the short, year-round Nature Trail. This path combines creativity, nature, and education with plenty of fun stops along the way.

EVERGREEN TRAIL

Location: Ricketts Glen State Park
Distance: 1-mile loop

The Evergreen Trail provides an alternative for families who want waterfall views but aren't quite ready to tackle the steep, slippery terrain of the Falls Trail. The trail is located across the road from the Glens Lot Trailhead on Route 118. Just a few minutes into the hike, you'll be rewarded with views of Adams Falls, a 36-foot-tall waterfall. The rest of the loop includes an old-growth forest and educational signage geared toward kids.

HEMLOCK TRAIL

Location: Salt Springs State Park
Distance: 0.4-mile one-way

Salt Springs State Park near Montrose is home to magnificent old-growth hemlock forests, where the trees are estimated to be over 300 years old. Take a stroll among these ancient giants along the Hemlock Trail. You'll encounter a bit of steep climbing before reaching a boardwalk through the forest. Make sure to stop at Penny Rock, where visitors have hammered pennies into the layers of a massive boulder for good luck. Hemlock Trail can be an out-and-back hike or connected to the Hardwood Trail or Fall Brook Trail for a longer adventure.

Please keep in mind, the difficulty of the trail will depend on your child's age and experience. Call the park office or trail manager to determine whether a trail is the right choice for your family.

IROQUOIS TRAIL

Location: Sunnyside Road, Tunkhannock

Distance: 1.8 miles one-way (starting from Bob Massaker Sports Complex), 1 mile one-way (starting from Sunnyside Road parking lot)

The Iroquois Trail in Tunkhannock is perfect for a leisurely walk. Built along the old Lehigh Valley Railroad line, this out-and-back trail is generally flat and gentle as it leads you through the forest. The fine gravel surface is ideal for strollers.

LITTLE ROCKY GLEN PRESERVE

Location: Lithia Valley Road, Factoryville (0.3 miles off Route 6)

Distance: 0.5 miles one-way

Little Rocky Glen is a nature preserve owned by Countryside Conservancy. A short trail weaves through the woods and borders a stunning gorge. Although the trail is short, it's better suited for older children because of the tall cliffs. At the end of the trail, you'll find a peaceful meadow and pavilion that's perfect for a creekside picnic.

NOKOMIS FOREST STEWARDSHIP TRAIL

Location: Keystone College Woodlands Campus

Distance: 1.2-mile loop

Keystone College offers seven miles of hiking trails that are open to the public. The Nokomis Forest Stewardship Trail is full of kid-approved adventures. Park near the library and cross the giant suspension bridge (even the adults will think it's cool). The trail enters the forest, follows part of the Trolley Trail, and loops around the athletic fields. A portion of the trail borders the South Branch of Tunkhannock Creek—perfect for searching for fish, frogs, and other critters.

RIVER & CANAL TRAIL LOOP

Location: Vosburg Neck State Park

Distance: 1.2-mile loop

Vosburg Neck is home to several easy-to-moderate trails, including the flat, gentle River and Canal Trails. Both trails begin by the boat launch. River Trail will lead you along the banks, which is a popular place to see bald eagles. Take a short rest overlooking the water before turning back on Canal Trail, which follows remnants of the old North Branch Canal.

SUMMIT LOOP TRAIL

Location: The Summit Center for Wellness

Distance: 1-mile loop

Located just outside of Laporte, the Summit Loop is a gentle walking trail on the future campus of the Loyalsock Foundation's Summit Center for Wellness. Woodchips and earthen paths make for a moderate walk through the woods. There are plenty of benches to stop and rest along the way.

TROLLEY TRAIL

Location: Factoryville/La Plume

Distance: 1.7 miles one-way

Another stroller-friendly option is the Countryside Conservancy's Trolley Trail, which runs through Factoryville borough and behind the Keystone College campus. The trail follows the old Northern Electric Trolley line. It is generally smooth and flat with a fine gravel and dirt surface. Trailhead parking is available on Riverside Drive across from the Factoryville Masonic Temple and at the Whitney Chamberlin Memorial Trailhead above the football field at Keystone College. Additional segments of the trail include a 0.7-mile stretch from La Plume to Dalton and a 2.8-mile portion from Clarks Summit to Dalton.

ENDLESS GRAVEL

Taking the scenic route is our way of life in the Endless Mountains, and one of the best ways to experience it is by bike. Hundreds of miles of dirt roads weave through forests and farmland, leading to hidden waterfalls, quiet lakes, and cozy general stores. On two wheels, the area's stunning scenery and country hospitality come to life.

That's the beauty of Endless Gravel, a network of unpaved cycling routes through Bradford, Sullivan, Susquehanna, and Wyoming counties. Tucked away in rural Northeastern Pennsylvania, these routes provide premier gravel riding within a few hours' drive from Philadelphia and New York City.

Endless Gravel launched in summer 2022 with the original 430-mile bikepacking loop, which was the first of its kind in the state. Since then, it has grown to include several multi-day routes and dozens of day rides, which will be unveiled later in 2026. Whether you're touring for a week or just want to squeeze in an afternoon ride, you'll find plenty to explore.

Bring your climbing legs, because some of the longer routes are downright tough. The full 430-mile loop boasts over 40,000 feet of elevation gain. On notorious climbs like Armenia Mountain and Helen's Road, you'll quickly see why our area lives up to the name "Endless Mountains."

In 2025, Endless Gravel hosted ultra endurance cyclist Cynthia Carson for a bikepacking trip. Known as Watt Wagon on Instagram and YouTube, Carson races extreme distances—hundreds or even thousands of miles at a time—and has several international wins under her belt. She created a short film about her Endless Gravel adventure, titled The Endless Ride. The film documents her journey of epic views, friendly locals, and small-town finds along the way. It also highlights local landmarks like the Loyalsock Canyon Vista, the Tunkhannock Creek Viaduct, and Brown Hill Farms, just to name a few. You can view the film on Carson's YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/@wattwagon/.

If you're up for a challenge, register for the annual Endless Mountains Grand Depart. This year's event kicks off with a mass start in Towanda on September 12, 2026. Riders can choose between 115-, 250-, and 430-mile rides. Participants can race for the FKTs (fastest known times) or enjoy a leisurely tour with friends. Either way, it's a great way to explore the routes and connect with other cyclists.

Rainy Day ACTIVITIES

When Mother Nature doesn't cooperate, sometimes it's best to turn to the great indoors. Regardless of rain or snow, cold snaps or heat waves, you can still stay busy with these indoor things to do.

💧 Spend a Day at the Movies

Open 365 days a year, the Dietrich Theater in Tunkhannock is the perfect place to sit back and catch the latest movies. Visit during one of their quarterly film festivals to see the best foreign and independent films. They also host art classes, cultural programs, and community events for all ages.

💧 Show Off Your Cornhole Skills

Cornhole isn't just for summer barbecues! You can play all year-round at Flying Bags Cornhole in Tunkhannock. Located at the Werks Plaza on Route 6, their indoor facility provides playing courts for rent. They also host organized leagues and tournaments.

💧 Learn the Art of Broom Making

At Meckley Brooms in Lopez, broom making has been in the family for six generations. Located just up the road from Ricketts Glen, this shop not only sells handcrafted brooms, but also offers "Make and Take" classes where you can create your own. Please call ahead to confirm availability and to book a private group.

💧 Do Some Target Practice

Burke's Gun Shop in Meshoppen is home to a 10-lane indoor shooting range. You can use the range by the hour, and firearm rentals are available. They also regularly offer classes.

💧 Relax at a Winery or Brewery

No matter the weather, you can always say "cheers" at one of our local tasting rooms. Several locations offer events like live music, game nights, bingo, and more.

💧 Visit a Historical Society

The Sullivan County, Susquehanna County, and Wyoming County Historical Societies are treasure troves of information. Each location has its own museum showcasing our region's heritage. They also have extensive genealogical information.

💧 Admire an Art Gallery

Discover artwork from near and far at an art gallery. Kitson Gallery in Tunkhannock showcases a variety of local and regional artists. Bear Valley Gallery near Dushore features oil and acrylic paintings by Frank and Linda Rump, including many pieces inspired by Pennsylvania's scenery and wildlife.

💧 Get Crafty

The Local Emporium Co. in Tunkhannock is known for its local gifts and artwork, but this shop also hosts a variety of crafting workshops each month. From learning to pour your own candle to creating cute decor for your home, they offer fun classes for every interest.

💧 Visit a Museum

The Endless Mountains are rich in history, and there's no better place to learn about it than at local museums. See our "Museums & Historic Sites" section for a list of locations.

💧 Pamper Yourself

Treat yourself to a self-care day at a salon or spa. Laporte's Hidden Gem Day Spa offers manicures, pedicures, facials, massages, and more to help you unwind. Shabby Shek Salon in Tunkhannock also offers hair, nail, and skin services. And Chi Energy Salt Spa in Tunkhannock provides soothing halotherapy and red-light therapy.

Celebrating America's 250th Anniversary

In 2026, America celebrates the semiquincentennial, the 250th anniversary of the founding of the United States. As the birthplace of the Declaration of Independence and a leading player in the American Revolution, Pennsylvania will be in the spotlight this year with events and initiatives across the state.

America250PA, the official state entity for the 250th celebration, is making sure all 67 counties in Pennsylvania are a part of this historic milestone. One of their programs is Bells Across PA, which places fiberglass replicas of the Liberty Bell in each county. Every bell is designed by a local artist. Robert Heinrich Jr. painted Sullivan County's bell, which is displayed at the Eagles Mere Inn. Titled "We the People," the bell depicts the Constitution and an American flag, along with local scenes like the Loyalsock Canyon Vista. Wyoming County's bell, titled "Community United Through Strength," is located at the Wyoming County

Healthcare Center in Tunkhannock. It was designed by Allison LaRussa, featuring local landmarks like the Nicholson Bridge, the Dietrich Theater, and more.

Larger bronze bells have also been placed at historically significant locations. The nearest one is at The Dennis Farm in Kingsley. The farm was originally purchased and settled by the Perkins family, free African Americans who settled in the area after the American Revolution. The farm is still owned by their descendants today, and several Revolutionary War veterans are laid to rest at the property's cemetery.

America250PA has also introduced a Liberty Tree program in partnership with the Pennsylvania Freemasons. The program will plant a certified liberty tree in each county. Sullivan County's tree is located in Laporte Park across from the courthouse, while Wyoming County's tree is planted at Lazybrook Park in Tunkhannock.

Honoring Revolutionary Veterans

Several of our local cemeteries date back to America's early days. One example is Marcy Cemetery on Sunnyside Road in Tunkhannock. It was named for Zebulon Marcy, a Revolutionary War veteran and early settler who is buried there. The Tunkhannock Chapter DAR has revitalized the cemetery and preserved this important piece of history.

Local communities, museums, and historical societies look forward to hosting 250th events throughout the year. A few examples include:

- ★ An America250PA Mobile Unit will visit fairs and festivals throughout the state leading up to July 4. The unit includes interactive exhibits, educational displays, and a storytelling booth.
- ★ The Eagles Mere Museum will host several transportation-themed programs from April through October.
- ★ French Azilum Historic Site is holding a Revolutionary War Weekend and 250th Anniversary Celebration on August 21-23, 2026. Visitors can watch battle reenactments and explore the soldiers' encampments.
- ★ The Tunkhannock Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) will present "July 4, 1776 – Breaking News: Independence Is Declared!" at the Dietrich Theater on June 27, 2026, at 11 a.m. This program will introduce the wives of the 24th Connecticut Militia Regiment of the Wyoming Valley and discover how they first heard the news of independence. A DAR America 250 exhibit will also be on display at the theater from June 1 through July 31, 2026.

★ The Wyalusing Valley Museum has announced a "Stars and Stripes" theme for the annual Patchwork in the Pews Quilt Show on April 18, 2026, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Wyalusing United Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. On June 14 at 2 p.m., they will also show video footage from the 1976 Wyalusing bicentennial celebration.

★ The Wyoming County Courthouse will observe Patriots Day with a ceremony on April 19, 2026, at 10:30 a.m.

Join us in the Endless Mountains as we honor the past, celebrate the present, and look ahead for the future. For more resources about local history, check out our Historic Sites & Museums directory on pages 14 and 15. For additional information about America250PA, please visit america250pa.org.

What's In a Name?

This area was considered the Endless Mountains before America was even founded! In Library of Congress records, a 1749 map by Lewis Evans shows the name "The Endless Mountains" written across the northeastern part of present-day Pennsylvania. The name was often repeated on maps from the 1750s, including George Washington's personal 1755 map of the British colonies.

A Trip Back in Time...

NOSTALGIC EXPERIENCES FOR ALL AGES

Here in the country, life moves at a slower pace. We like to pause and enjoy the simple things in life, from summer days swimming in the creek to sweet treats from the country store to quiet nights relaxing on the porch. These timeless traditions will help you re-live your childhood memories (and share them with the next generation).

OLD-FASHIONED GENERAL STORES ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆

Back in the day, general stores were the hub of the community. In some of our small towns, that's still the case!

"Conveniently located in the middle of nowhere" is the slogan at Baumunk's General Store, but it's well worth the drive to rural Shunk. This store truly does it all; they have a gift shop, groceries, hardware, a restaurant, a gas station, and the town post office all in one. Their sandwiches, pizzas, cheesesteaks, and ice cream hit the spot after a day of exploring. And don't forget to pick up Shunk souvenirs and locally made products to take home.

McCarty Mercantile is another community staple that has served Hillsgrove since 1878. Inside, you'll find everything you need and more, like local gifts, snacks, and household staples. The Tannery Café serves up delicious homestyle meals. Keep an eye out for pizza specials and Saturday Night Jams, featuring live music and dinner.

NOSTALGIC EATS ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆

At Jolly Trolley Variety in Dushore, take a seat at the '50s-style lunch counter for breakfast or lunch (a burger and a shake can't be beat!). This local diner is a favorite for kids and adults alike with fun details like a train that circles the room and a collection of Dushore's famous painted toilet seats. After lunch, explore their massive shop, which is full of Sullivan County souvenirs, classic toys and games, home décor, and so much more.

For pure '80s nostalgia, head to the Pizza Hut Classic in small-town Tunkhannock. It's one of only a handful of retro-style Pizza Huts left in the country, complete with a beloved salad bar, checkered tablecloths, stained glass lamps, and other old-school branding. After going viral in 2025, this location has attracted pizza lovers from across the East Coast and beyond.

Remember picking out treats at the local candy counter? Ebb's Candy Jar in Tunkhannock will bring back those sweet memories. This cute little shop offers gourmet truffles, decadent chocolates, and endless jars full of nostalgic favorites.

GOOD OLD-FASHIONED FUN ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆

Historic Eagles Mere is often dubbed "the town that time forgot," and it's easy to why. If you visit in the summer, stop by the Eagles Mere Auto Museum, which features an impeccable collection of classic cars, signage, and more. The adjacent Eagles Mere Air Museum showcases antique airplanes, which are all in flying condition, along with about 65 rare and unique bikes in the Motorcycle Museum. The museums are open on Saturdays from Memorial Day weekend through mid-October.

When the weather is cold enough, the local fire companies build the Eagles Mere Toboggan Slide, a quarter-mile long chute made completely of ice from the nearby lake. Originally built in 1904, the slide's design has remained mostly the same for over 120 years. On this wild ride, the sleds can reach speeds up to forty-five miles per hour!

Life's special moments deserve a backdrop that's just as beautiful. The Endless Mountains offer a peaceful country setting just a short drive from Philadelphia and New York.

THE ENDLESS MOUNTAINS

No matter when you visit, you'll discover fun all year-round!

Through the Seasons

SPRING

The mountains are coming back to life—all the better to head outside! The waterfalls are flowing thanks to the April showers, and the popular Falls Trail at Ricketts Glen State Park typically reopens once the snow and ice melt away. April also marks the return of trout season along scenic, stocked waters like the Loyalsock Creek and South Branch Tunkhannock Creek. For the ultimate views, wander through over 500,000 tulips at Brown Hill Farms in Tunkhannock.

SUMMER

Every single weekend boasts some sort of fair or festival! From the outhouse races at Dushore Founder's Day to rhythms of the NEPA Bluegrass Festival, you'll experience a little slice of small-town Americana. For a more relaxed pace, stroll through a farmers market or take a kayaking trip on the Susquehanna River (Endless Mountain Outfitters and Susquehanna Kayak & Canoe Rentals can help with gear rentals).

FALL

With the cooler temperatures and a hint of autumn magic in the air, it's easy to see why fall is many people's favorite season in the mountains. Outdoor fun still abounds, especially when the fall foliage reaches its peak in early to mid-October. High Knob Overlook and the Loyalsock Canyon Vista are excellent leaf peeping spots. The harvest season also brings visits to the pumpkin patch and fun events like the popular Sullivan County Fall Festival & Lumberjack/Chainsaw Carving Competition.

WINTER

The season kicks off with plenty of Christmas cheer, from the dazzling Festival of Lights at Stone Hedge Golf Course to the free 12 Movies of Christmas Festival at the Dietrich Theater. Towns like Dushore, Factoryville, and Tunkhannock host holiday celebrations for the entire family. As the season progresses, we welcome the snow and cold for winter sports like skiing at Elk Mountain, ice fishing at Lake Jean, and wild rides down the famous Eagles Mere Toboggan Slide.

DISCOVER DUSHORE

One Stop, Endless Possibilities

Only one stoplight exists in Sullivan County, Pennsylvania, and it sits at the heart of downtown Dushore. Located at the junction of Routes 87 and 220, it's safe to say that you'll never experience rush hour here. Instead, you'll find a place where small-town America still thrives.

As the largest town in the county, Dushore is a hub for business and shopping. The streets are lined with locally owned businesses, just as they have been for generations. Family-run stores sell local gifts and everyday essentials, while the restaurants serve up scratch-made meals. "Shopping small" is more than a trend; it's the way of life in this corner of the Endless Mountains.

Dushore is also a gateway to outdoor fun. The town provides easy access to the area's scenic parks, trails, waterfalls, and vistas. Destinations like Ricketts Glen State Park, Worlds End State Park, and the Loyalsock State Forest are just a short drive away. With plenty of places to rest and resupply, Dushore makes the perfect basecamp for your next adventure.

Dushore's community spirit shines the brightest during the town's annual festivals. The year begins with the Endless Mountains Sleigh Rally, a horse-drawn sleigh competition reminiscent of Currier and Ives. In February, the Winter Wine & Chocolate Walk features craft beverages and delicious desserts throughout town. Summertime brings the children's Fishing Derby at Kast's Pond and the popular Founder's Day, which is known for the famous outhouse races. The holiday season welcomes Shop Small Saturday and Christmas in Dushore, a full day of festive fun throughout town. For 2026, Dushore is also planning special activities to celebrate America's 250th anniversary.

Come to discover Dushore's vibrant community and stay to see all that Sullivan County has to offer. The Dushore Area Business Association (DABA) is an excellent resource for learning more about town. This organization promotes business and community interests by sponsoring quality activities and events in the Greater Dushore Area. For more information, visit www.dushore.com or follow DABA on Facebook.
